
WALL LOOKOUT

A lookout with undercover picnic tables. The view includes views of the Intake Tower and along the dam wall.

SPILLWAY LOOKOUT

Take the stairs to the top of the lookout. From here you can see down the Eildon valley, including views of the Eildon township and lower pondage.

SPILLWAY GARDENS LOOKOUT

Take the stairs down to the Gardens viewing area where you will get a close-up view of the spillway. This is especially spectacular when water is being released through the gates.

SPILLWAY ROAD LOOKOUT

Take a walk along the roadway on the spillway to get a true idea of the height of the spillway.

CARTWRIGHT LANE LOOKOUT

Drive to this lookout to get a spectacular view of the spillway from pondage level. This is especially spectacular when water is being released through the gate system.

There are no facilities at this lookout.

EAST'S LOOKOUT

While not on the circuit, the lookout is only a few minutes drive from the Wall Lookout and offers the viewer an excellent view of the Wall and lake from a high vantage point.

There are no facilities at this lookout.

INFORMATION

The Eildon Dam Wall circuit is a 7.3 km drive around the historic "Big Eildon" Dam construction project of the 1950s.

It passes the Wall Lookout, Spillway Lookout, Spillway gardens lookout and the Cartwright Lane view. It is also within a few minutes drive of the popular East's Lookout, overlooking the entire wall from a higher vantage point on the north.

As with all lookouts, please stay within the established boundaries.

Stopping on the dam wall road is not permitted. Please park your vehicles at the established parking areas, and walk on foot to each location.
