

The Fraser Block of Lake Eildon National Park is located in Collier Bay in Central Victoria and is home to two dedicated nature walks (see separate brochures) as well as other walks that include strenuous to easy grades. These include:

- Candlebark Gully Nature Walk (easy)
- Perfect Cure Creek Nature Walk (easy)
- Estate Spur (hard)
- Point Mibus - via Point Mead (medium)
- Point Cook (medium)
- Stones Outstation - Via Point Cook (medium)

These walks offer a large variety of flora and fauna for the keen observer or naturalist to enjoy. The scenery and views of the water are especially beautiful during the early morning and late afternoons when long shadows illuminate the surrounding bushland.

FEATURES

- Main Nature Walks are one hour return circuits
- Main Nature Walks have interpretative signage
- All walks have undulating walking paths
- Some walks offer steep hard walks
- Mostly well developed trails
- Trail markers generally used
- Native flora and fauna
- Heritage mining remnants
- Each walk changes as the seasons do
- Both walks are easily completed in one day
- Camping nearby (bookings essential)

Please respect the rights of others and take your rubbish home with you and recycle. Always be aware of snakes and do not feed the native animals. Children must be supervised at all times and always let someone know of your travel plans. When on the nature walks, please keep to the marked tracks and wear appropriate footwear as tracks can be extremely slippery when wet. Ensure you carry water in the hotter months.

Nature walks are a perfect way to unwind and take some time out of your busy life. Take your camera and see what you can capture.

Kangaroos, wallabies and wombats frequent these areas, as do a wide range of birds.

In the late 1800s, it is believed that prominent local miner John Merlo found a 5oz gold nugget in the park area. More on this at stop 5 on the Perfect Cure Creek nature walk.

FROM ALEXANDRA

1. Travel east on the Goulburn Valley Highway towards Eildon for 2 km.
2. Turn left at UT Creek Road.
3. Travel 9 km to Haines Saddle.
4. Descend 3 km to the office.
5. Turn left and travel 1 km to the Candlebark Gully nature walks carpark (on the left) or 1.5 km to the Perfect Cure Creek nature walk carpark (just past the start of the gravel road).
6. Follow the map (left) for other walks.

FROM EILDON

1. Travel north on the Skyline Road for 10 km, until you reach Haines Saddle.
2. Descend 3 km to the office and intersection.
3. Turn left and travel 1 km to the Candlebark Gully nature walk's carpark (on the left, or 1.5 km to the Perfect Cure Creek nature walk carpark (just past the start of the gravel road).
4. Follow the map (left) for other walks.

Always let someone know of your travel plans, and avoid walking alone if at all possible. Basic Telstra mobile phone coverage is possible in some parts of the park, though having signal cannot be relied upon.
