

Candlebark Nature Walk is located in Fraser Block on the west bank of Collier Bay of the Lake Eildon National Park. The walk starts near the Candlebark Camp Area and continues for 2 kilometres.

The walk track is of good grade and takes the walker through beautiful Australian bushland where flora and fauna abound. There are areas of historical value dating back to gold mining days in the mid 1800s.

Two undercover Day Visitor Areas with BBQ facilities are located nearby (Forsyth and Herb Fitzroy). Candlebark Camping Area also has an undercover BBQ area, however this camp site is only open during peak periods.

The walk takes around an hour and is suitable for families. It is also popular as a night walk under torch light, when nocturnal animals venture from their homes and forage for food. This includes owls, possums and gliders.

Rangers patrol the camping area regularly.
