

The Point Mibus walk starts on the southern bank of Collier Bay (Fraser Block) Lake Eildon National Park in Central Victoria. The track winds out of Collier Bay to the south to Point Mead and then Point Mibus. The walk takes around an hour each way and is suitable for families.

The walk starts from the carpark at Lakeside Camp Ground (just past the toilet block) and leads to the east. The walk track is a three kilometre medium grade walk (each way) and takes you through beautiful Australian bushland abounding with flora and fauna. The track is often elevated and picturesque view abound.

Two undercover Day Visitor Areas with BBQ facilities are located nearby (Forsyth and Herb Fitzroy) and camping is available at Lakeside Camp Ground (bookings essential).

Please note that there are no seats or facilities at Point Mibus.

In 1956, the Big Eildon Dam project, was finished, expanding the water holding capacity of the new Lake Eildon over seven times when compared to the earlier Sugarloaf Weir.

Fraser National Park was established at Coller Bay on the lake's western bank, 25 minutes from Alexandra and Eildon.

Fraser National Park affords locals and visitors easy to access camping areas, nature walks, water access and all year fishing.

FROM ALEXANDRA

1. Travel east on the Goulburn Valley Highway towards Eildon for 2 km.
2. Turn left at UT Creek Road.
3. Travel 9 km to Haines Saddle.
4. Descend 3 km to the office.
5. Turn right and follow the road to Lakeside camp Ground and the track head on the left (just past the toilet block).

FROM EILDON

1. Travel north on the Skyline Road for 10 km, until you reach Haines Saddle.
2. Descend 3 km to the office and intersection.
3. Turn right and follow the road to Lakeside camp Ground and the track head on the left (just past the toilet block).

Please note that roads in the park can be narrow. Always be aware of native animals on the roads. Fire regulations apply during the summer months. Ensure you are aware of the daily restriction status, before lighting any fires.
