

Although there are numerous walk options taking in Blowhard Spur Track, our recommended walk is a 6 km circuit walk starting at the Perfect Cure Creek carpark area, near Devils Cove Camping Area in Collier Bay (Fraser Block) Lake Eildon National Park in Central Victoria. The walk offers superb views, numerous photographic opportunities and lovely Australian bushland abundant in flora and fauna.

From the Perfect Cure Creek carpark area, follow Keg Spur Track to the west which climbs steeply up to High Camp. Then follow Blowhard Spur Track east along the spur before descending down Merlo Lookout Track to the south to Merlo Lookout. Then walk west along the gravel road back to the car. The walk takes around two hours at a casual pace and is of hard grade due to the steepness of the climb and decent sections.

Two undercover Day Visitor Areas with BBQ facilities are located nearby (Forsyth and Herb Fitzroy). Camping is available in the park Camp Ground (bookings essential).
